The need for change as we get older—an emotional pressure for one phase of our lives to transition into another—is a human phenomenon THE AGE OF MIRACLES: Embracing the New Midlife “It’s not that you’re deluding yourself, refusing to gracefully accept that your youth is over. You accept the limits of age, but you accept the limitlessness of God as well. New York Times best-selling author and spiritual activist Marianne Williamson reminds us that now is the time when you can have more fun, more meaning, more passion, and more enlightenment than you could ever imagine. In her new book: The Age of Miracles: Embracing the New Midlife, she discusses how! Marianne Williamson's The Age of Miracles: Embracing the New Midlife is really about that most human of dreams-- The Second Chance. All of us want to believe that we can change what we don't like about ourselves, that we can recover from past mistakes and bad breaks.
