Imagination Childcare Academy, Inc., located on the west side of Rochester, NY, is a full day inclusive program for children, ages two through twelve years, that is committed towards providing top rated child care services coupled with a high quality activity based learning curriculum. In preschool, your child will learn many types of skills. Reading books together in which the characters are going through the same thing can also help your preschooler develop these important skills. Below are four books in which the characters are learning some of the same skills as your preschooler. St. James's Children's Center is an early childhood education program serving Richmond families for over 30 years. We are located in Richmond's Fan district, near VCU and convenient to downtown at 1205 W. Franklin Street.
