1. Introduction. Almost 60 years ago, Randolph first defined “food addiction” as “[...] a specific adaptation to one or more regularly consumed foods to which a person is highly sensitive, produces a common pattern of symptoms descriptively similar to those of other addictive processes”; addictive-like consumption of corn, wheat, coffee, milk, eggs, and potatoes was reported (Randolph ...Social and emotional learning (SEL) is the process through which children and adults acquire and effectively apply the knowledge, attitudes, and skills necessary to understand and manage emotions, set and achieve positive goals, feel and show empathy for others, establish and maintain positive relationships, and make responsible decisions.Exercise addiction is a state characterized by a compulsive engagement in any form of physical exercise, despite negative consequences. While regular exercise is generally a healthy activity, exercise addiction generally involves performing excessive amounts of exercise to the detriment of physical health, spending too much time exercising to the detriment of personal and professional life ...BibMe Free Bibliography & Citation Maker - MLA, APA, Chicago, Harvard
