We believe coffee is more than just careful farming, intentional processing and expert roasting. Coffee is an opportunity to do good, and doing good means we get to help people and champion dignity. In 2012, The Haven Project opened a center for high-risk young adults without a safe, stable place to live. By purchasing coffee and food at this social enterprise, Land of a Thousand Hills, you are supporting our program which offers vital services such as access to education and job training. Known as the land of a thousand hills, Rwanda's stunning scenery and warm, friendly people offer unique experiences in one of the most remarkable countries in the world.
