The quote the lion shall lie down with the lamb does have its origins in the Bible. However, the saying has morphed over the centuries. Isaiah 11:6 says the wolf also shall dwell with the lamb. And there shall come forth a rod out of the root of Jesse, and a flower shall rise up out of his root. 2 And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and of understanding, the spirit of counsel and of fortitude, the spirit of knowledge and of godliness. This is not an exact quote from scripture but rather a combination of thoughts from a couple of verses. Isaiah 11:6 The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. Question: "How should we understand the Lion and the Lamb passage?" Answer: Typically, when someone is thinking of the "lion and the lamb," Isaiah 11:6 is in mind due to it often being misquoted, "And the wolf will dwell with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down with the young goat, and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together."
